Hoofland's German Bitters Is composed of the pure Juices (or, as they are in edit cinally of Roots, Herbs and preparation, highly and entirely free admixture of any kind.

HUOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of kanta (Yruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever effered to the public.

Those preferring Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Heofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objection to the com-ination of the Bitters, as stated, will use authorizing an appeal to the English Courts to test the legality of the Confederation. He said he did not propose that a delegation should be sent to England, but would prepare the case and submit it to eminent counsel, If their opinion was favorable, he would take steps[to bring the question involving the legality of the Act before the Courts.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. They are both equally good, and contain he same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, he Tonic being the most pulatable.

Messrs, Troop and Smith, two of the delegates to England, opposed the resolution, on the ground that already eminent counsel, Sir Roundel Palmer and Vernon Harcourt, had said the act was legal.

Mr. Wilkins said the case was not placed before the course of the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the county of the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the county of the case was not placed before the DRY GOODS MARKET.
